SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

The Polish Legation in Buenos Aires customarily finances one-half of the ship fare from Buenos Aires to Warsaw for Poles who possess a specialized training, usually technical or professional, and who have expressed a desire to return to Poland for the purpose of assisting the Warsaw government. Approval of the Warsaw government is required before the Legation can negotiate the special discounts for repatriates with the Polish shipping lines. This assistance does not extend to Poles who lack a specialized training.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
